

To Master's course students of Graduate School of Engineering
(Except for the Division of Cooperative Program for Resources Engineering),

New Registration and Changes to "Secondary Field of Study"

Master's course students are required to register your Secondary Field of Study through the "Secondary Field of Study Registration System", and there are two chances for this procedure in an Academic Year as following.

For those who are applicable to the conditions below, please register or change your Secondary Field of Study in the system during the registrable period below.

1. This notice applies to the following

Master's course students of Graduate School of Engineering

(Except for the Division of Cooperative Program for Resources Engineering)

*Students who have already registered your Secondary Field of Study through the "Secondary Field of Study Registration System" in the past and want to change it, are also able to reregister it during the registrable period of Secondary Field of Study.

*Students who have already registered your Secondary Field of Study through the "Secondary Field of Study Registration System" in the past and do not want to change it, are not required to do this procedure.

2. Registrable period

First chance : May 20th ~ May 31st

Second chance : November 20th ~ November 30th

3. How to register

Please log in to the "Secondary Field of Study Registration System" with your ELMS-ID and follow the instructions. (<https://st.eng.hokudai.ac.jp/>)

After logging in to the system, you can switch a language to English by clicking the "English" button displayed on the upper right.

<QR code>

4. Note

- In addition to this procedure of the registration of your Secondary Field of Study through the "Secondary Field of Study Registration System", please be sure to register courses and earn enough credits for your Secondary Field of Study to fulfill the requirements of the completion of Master's course.
- If you have any problems with the system, please contact the following section in charge.

Academic Affairs Division : k-gakuin@eng.hokudai.ac.jp