A TRANS-ASIAN NETWORKS FOR THE EDUCATION OF TALENTED TOP-CLASS STUDENTS

ASIAN GRADUATE SCHOOLS OF CHEMISTRY AND MATERIALS SCIENCE

FAST TRACK TO INNOVATION EXPERT IN CHEMISTRY

The "Asian Graduate Schools of the Chemistry and Materials Science (AGS)" is a trans-Asian educational network consisting of Hokkaido University, Peking University, Seoul National University and National Taiwan University. Our main mission is to produce talented top-class young scientists in the fields of chemistry and materials science. We are now recruiting elite students who have deep interest in chemistry and materials science. All students will be provided a scholarship from this program which covers the examination fee, entrance fee, tuitions fees and living costs. Application deadline is April 30, 2008.
