

Japan-YWP 5th International Symposium in WET2016

- Working as an early-career researcher ~Development of international academic career ~ -

Japan-YWP organizes “Japan-YWP 5th International Symposium “Working as an early-career researcher ~Development of international academic career ~” as a part of the WET2016 conference. In this symposium, 3 early-career and active Asian young researchers encourage young water professionals based on their experiences.

- Organizer : IWA Japan National Young Water Professionals (Japan-YWP)
- Co-organizer: Japan Society on Water Environment (JSWE)
- Date: 10:00 - 12:00, 27 Aug. (Sat.)
- Venue: Room A (Rm. 5234), 2nd Floor, Building No. 5, Korakuen Campus, Chuo University
Access: <http://global.chuo-u.ac.jp/english/siteinfo/visit/korakuen/>
- Pre-registration: Unnecessary
- Fee: Free
- Program: Chair person: Dr. Mamoru Oshiki, National Institute of Technology, Nagaoka College, Japan-YWP committee.
- 10:00 – 10:15 Opening address: Dr. Hiroshi Yamamura, Chuo University, Representative of Japan-YWP committee.
- 10:15 – 10:45 Dr. Rajendra Khanal, The University of Tokyo, Japan.
“Early career research experience in Japan”
- 10:45 – 11:15 Mr. Kodai Watari, Nagaoka University of Technology, Japan.
“Global Research Strategy for Future Carrier”
- 11:15 – 11:45 Dr. Masaaki Kitajima, Hokkaido University, Japan.
“Young Researchers, Be Ambitious and International!”
- 11:45 – 12:00 Closing address: Dr. Takashi Onodera, National Institute for Environmental Studies, Representative of Japan-YWP committee.

Contact: Dr. Mamoru Oshiki <oshiki@nagaoka-ct.ac.jp>